

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 656

Introduced by Assembly Member Hancock

February 17, 2005

An act to amend Section 48324 of the Education Code, relating to pupil attendance.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 656, as introduced, Hancock. Pupil attendance: county school attendance review boards.

Under existing law, a county school attendance review board may be established in each county to propose and promote the use of alternatives to the juvenile court system for pupils with school attendance problems or school behavioral problems. Existing law authorizes county school attendance review boards to adopt rules and regulations as are necessary for their own government and to enable them to carry out their duties and powers.

This bill would provide that those rules and regulations may include a procedure for the submission of any recommendation of the board to the appropriate school district personnel.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 48324 of the Education Code is
- 2 amended to read:
- 3 48324. The county school attendance review board may adopt
- 4 ~~such~~ rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, as are
- 5 necessary for its own government and to enable it to carry out the

1 provisions of this article. The rules and regulations may include
2 a procedure for the submission of any recommendation of the
3 board to the appropriate school district personnel. The rules and
4 regulations may be binding upon the local school attendance
5 review boards which are established pursuant to subdivision (d)
6 of Section 48321.
